Senior Comprehensive

A student who elects to complete her Senior Comprehensive requirement in Global Studies will carry out a research project grounded in a topic related to her area of concentration. She will develop and present a proposal during Senior Seminar in the fall of her senior year. The proposal will include a hypothesis or research question, the design of the study and methodologies to be used, significance of the question, and a bibliography. In the spring semester of senior year, Global Studies majors will make oral and written presentations of their projects to a committee comprised of faculty teaching within the concentration areas and/or the Global Studies core disciplines.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Students can articulate the core ideas in anthropology—of evolution, culture, structure, function, and relativism—in analyzing the intersection of cultural systems and global processes.
- Students can explain biological and cross-cultural approaches to global patterns of human behavior, social organization, and cultural ecology.
- Students can articulate the value of anthropological methods as applied to global research questions.

Advanced Writing Proficiency

Each student who completes this requirement in Global Studies will submit her written senior comprehensive project for evaluation.
